- CHRISTMAS MASS & BRUNCH
 - Club event kicks-off Christmas season in Chicago. Plan mass and brunch for Chicago families, which includes a visit from Santa Claus.

- FRESHMEN SEND-OFF EVENT
 - Plan send-off event for incoming freshman class members who live in club jurisdiction. Event occurs at local area high school and allows students and family to gain additional university information in informal setting.

- GOLF OUTING
 - Plan and coordinate annual golf outing. This event, along with Rockne Banquet, constitutes one of the keynote annual club fundraising events

- HESBURGH FORUM
 - Arrange guests to speak at lecture series that explore academic, moral, and ethical issues. Club typically holds two such events each fiscal year.

- MEMBERSHIP
 - Coordinate annual membership drive. Work to identify new club offerings that provide content to club membership.

- NETWORKING
 - Develop low cost and/or self-funding programs, events, and networks designed to draw alumni to the ND family by reaching out to different age, interest, and practice or industry groups, and build community within the NDCC.

- ROCKNE
 - Plan and coordinate annual club banquet. Committee chairs work to identify event venue, arrange event speakers, and lead silent auction and raffle committees.
 - Subcommittees include Silent Auction and Sponsorship

- SERVICE
 - Coordinate service events throughout the fiscal year. The chair's goal is to create an environment that fosters commitment to service.

- BOOKSTORE BASKETBALL
 - Coordinate sponsors, volunteers, and players for annual Young Alumni basketball tournament

- BUD BILLIKEN PARADE
 - Coordinate logistics and advertising of this South Side parade among ND alumni in Chicago
 - Committee members help find sponsors and marchers
